

Lovers

On that magic night
First time I saw you
You seduced me, with your eyes

You took me by surprise, the morning after
There you were still sexy on the bed
After passion met desire, you asked me to leave
Maybe later

After all, we are just lovers
Nothing more

You've made a slave
Without I am nothing
I want you and only you
But in the end, we are just lovers
Nothing more, than just lovers
More than just lovers

Between you and I
There's not much to say
I can't have enough of you
I need you forever
It's sad to say, Adios
Every Morning, Adios
To my dream-come-true, Adios
Adios

I can only wish we were
More than just lovers
Nothing more than just lovers
More than just lovers
More than just lovers
More than just lovers
Adios
